A Member Board of the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS)

ABPN Director Nomination Process

The ABPN Board of Directors has started the annual process of selecting new psychiatry and neurology Directors to begin terms on the Board in 2027. Director candidates are nominated by the current Directors or by the ABPN's nominating professional societies. As well, in keeping with the ABPN's goals of fostering inclusivity, the ABPN accepts self-nominations from diplomates. Initial inquiries and requests for more information can be sent to DirectorNominee@abpn.org. Please note that, among the many desired characteristics, most successful candidates have had experience serving as volunteers on ABPN committees.
